

HENLEY ROWING CLUB

Code of Conduct for Junior Members

Please read the Club's Code of Conduct Policy at www.henleyrowingclub.co.uk/club-rules-and-policies/and sign and keep to the following:

- Understand and follow the rules and procedures of the club
- Be loyal to the club and be proud to be a part of it
- Be friendly, welcoming and supportive, particularly to new members
- Behave sensibly and follow all instructions from coaches
- Take your safety and the safety of others seriously and act in a safe manner at all times
- Stay within the rules at events; show respect for officials and their decisions
- Take care of equipment owned by the club and do not use equipment belonging to others without their permission
- Respect the rights of all participants including competitors and other water users regardless of their age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity
- Do not use bad or abusive language – this applies equally to conversation and electronic communication
- Do not bully others, or take part in rough and dangerous play
- Keep to agreed timings for training sessions and competitions or inform your coach if you are going to be late
- Pay subscriptions and event fees promptly
- Never smoke, consume alcohol or use any form of drug whilst on club premises, or whilst representing the club at competitions
- Report behaviour or incidents which you think are not right
- Help to make your club a fun place to be

Your coach will deal with any misbehaviour and refer it to the committee where necessary.
