LOCO PARENTIS DEFINITION AND RESPONSIBILITY:

The term in loco parentis, Latin for "in the place of a parent" refers to the legal responsibility of a person or organization to take on some of the functions and responsibilities of a parent. Originally derived from English common law, it is applied in two separate areas of the law.

The person that is responsible is expected to apply the same standard of care as a reasonable parent would. The standard of care may vary because of activity, age and maturity. However, the person must assume certain responsibilities and recognise both the legal and moral obligations rest upon them in every aspect of the activity. By law, the adult must behave as any "reasonable" parent would.
